

Carmela Allevato Bio

A long-time member of the NDP, I have served in various capacities including as president of the False Creek Constituency Association and member of the Provincial Council. Currently I am a member in Vancouver Hastings. I have served as a labour member on the BC Labour Relations Board, an officer of the BC Federation of Labour, a Vancouver School Trustee and cofounder of End the Arms Race and Walk for Peace. I am a lawyer well versed in the obligations of registered political parties and the legal and fiduciary obligations of organizations.
