Jaime Matten

for Vice-President

About Jaime

Jaime Matten has had the honour of serving as the treasurer for the BC NDP for the last four years. In that role, Jaime helped advance work to make our party's finances strong and sustainable, setting the framework for the next election.

This term, Jaime hopes to continue her work with the Party as part of the table officer team as a vice president. She is excited to take on a different role and looks forward to supporting and working with the newly elected treasurer.

Through her roles with the BC NDP and the BC Federation of Labour, she is continually inspired by the outstanding people who work tirelessly to make our communities stronger.

Jaime lives between Pender Island, the unceded territory of the Tsawout and Tseycum First Nations, and Vancouver, the unceded territory of the Squamish, Tsleil-waututh and Musqueam First Nations. She has three children, two old dogs, and loves to grow things!

Jaime has been an active member of the NDP for more than 20 years, supporting our team in a variety of roles including working for our caucus in opposition, in municipal politics, and through her current work in the labour movement.

As we build towards the next election, Jaime is focused on getting us election-ready and advancing the priorities and values we share as New Democrats.

Team Aaron

Strong leadership means having an experienced and diverse team to guide our movement to victory in the 2024 provincial election. Our team is excited to get to work.

Winning requires a collective effort. We must run strong campaigns across every region and ensure our candidates are ready and supported. Our team has the ability to meet this challenge and protect the important gains that make our communities strong.

In 2021, we set out to strengthen our party, promote inclusivity and ready our activists for future elections. Together, we have achieved significant milestones: electing our first Equity Vice-President, updating the equity mandate, and launching a youth battleground program to empower activists across the province. Two successful by-elections helped to skill up new volunteers and campaign staff, and our record-breaking Forward conference trained 400 activists for the next election.

Our progress is a testament to the leadership of all our party volunteers and activists guiding our movement. We are proud to be part of the team advancing what matters to all British Columbians.
