Re-elect as Member at Large

About Stephanie

Stephanie Smith is seeking your support for re-election as a Member at Large on the BC NDP provincial executive.

Stephanie is a member of the Richmond-Steveston Constituency Association and was first elected as a member at large on the BC NDP executive at our 2019 convention.

An early childhood educator by profession and social justice advocate by nature, Stephanie became the first woman elected president of the BC General Employees' Union in 2014. Stephanie was acclaimed to a second term in 2017 and acclaimed again to a third term at the union's virtual convention in 2021.

Stephanie has a history of frontline activism as well as visionary leadership in the labour and social justice movements on issues like expanding workers' rights and promoting unionization, equity, and inclusion in all worksites and all communities. She is a powerful voice for working people in the media as well as on government task forces, committees, and working groups. Her goal has always been to create a safe, healthy, and prosperous society that reflects the values of working people: dignity, respect, and opportunity; equity, inclusion, and justice; hope, diversity, and security.

Stephanie is a proud mom of two adult children and a grateful settler on the unceded and stolen territory of the Musqueam Nation in what is now known as Richmond, B.C.

Team Aaron

Strong leadership means having an experienced and diverse team to guide our movement to victory in the 2024 provincial election. Our team is excited to get to work.

Winning requires a collective effort. We must run strong campaigns across every region and ensure our candidates are ready and supported. Our team has the ability to meet this challenge and protect the important gains that make our communities strong.

In 2021, we set out to strengthen our party, promote inclusivity and ready our activists for future elections. Together, we have achieved significant milestones: electing our first Equity Vice-President, updating the equity mandate, and launching a youth battleground program to empower activists across the province. Two successful by-elections helped to skill up new volunteers and campaign staff, and our record-breaking Forward conference trained 400 activists for the next election.

Our progress is a testament to the leadership of all our party volunteers and activists guiding our movement. We are proud to be part of the team advancing what matters to all British Columbians.
