

About Sussanne

Sussanne Skidmore is proud to be running for re-election as the vice-president (labour) position for the BC NDP with an incredible team and would be honoured to have your support once again.

Sussanne has been active and involved with our party for over 20 years at every level from constituency work, Women's and Gender Rights Committee, provincial and executive council, and has been a candidate in Nechako Lakes.

Sussanne was recently elected as the BC Federation of Labour's president in 2022 after being elected as the federation's secretary-treasurer in 2018 and 2020. Sussanne currently serves as the labour vice president of the BC NDP and the treasurer of the New Democratic Party of Canada.

A well-known human rights, social justice and queer rights activist, she served as executive vice-president of BCGEU for 5 years. Sussanne has also co-chaired the BCFED's Human Rights Committee and is active in the federation's Women and Gender Rights Committee.

Sussanne looks forward to bringing her passion for human rights, social justice, and workers' rights back to the table by continuing the work of the party and leading us into and through the next election.
