Tim Chu 朱銘天 for Vice-President

About Tim

Growing up in a humble household as the son of a refugee, Tim Chu's upbringing profoundly shaped his progressive values. His parents, hardworking individuals, provided for their family with his mother employed in food services and his father as a machine operator. Witnessing their determination and perseverance left a deep mark on Tim, instilling in him a profound sense of empathy and a drive to effect positive change.

During his time at the University of British Columbia, Tim became a vocal advocate for more accessible and affordable post-secondary education. This early foray into advocacy laid the foundation for his future endeavours in championing social and economic justice.

Tim's commitment to change did not stop there. He supported individuals who had been unjustly denied income and disability assistance, recognizing the urgent need for a more compassionate and equitable system. Tim has consistently pushed for change.

With a wealth of experience in political campaigns spanning coast to coast, Tim brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the table. Currently, he works at a digital campaign agency, where he tirelessly champions progressive causes.

His work is a testament to his unwavering dedication to building a more just and inclusive society, one where every individual, regardless of their background, has an opportunity to thrive. Tim looks forward to continuing that work with the BC NDP as a vice-president.

Team Aaron

Strong leadership means having an experienced and diverse team to guide our movement to victory in the 2024 provincial election. Our team is excited to get to work.

Winning requires a collective effort. We must run strong campaigns across every region and ensure our candidates are ready and supported. Our team has the ability to meet this challenge and protect the important gains that make our communities strong.

In 2021, we set out to strengthen our party, promote inclusivity and ready our activists for future elections. Together, we have achieved significant milestones: electing our first Equity Vice-President, updating the equity mandate, and launching a youth battleground program to empower activists across the province. Two successful by-elections helped to skill up new volunteers and campaign staff, and our record-breaking Forward conference trained 400 activists for the next election.

Our progress is a testament to the leadership of all our party volunteers and activists guiding our movement. We are proud to be part of the team advancing what matters to all British Columbians.
